Fact Sheet

What: Teatro ZinZanni is an original show which combines European cirque, cabaret, comedy and live music served up with a five-course feast.

The show is presented in a gorgeous, climate-controlled antique cabaret spiegeltent (mirror tent) Imported from Belgium; our spiegeltent is nicknamed the Moulin Rouge. Built in 1910, it boasts stained glass, hand-carved wooden interior columns, polished crystal and vintage mirrors. Guests are seated restaurant-style in this unique venue, and the action of the show surrounds the guests throughout the circular structure. The Moulin Rouge comfortably seats 285 guests.

Best known for evening performances that blend cirque, comedy and cabaret with a five-course feast, Teatro ZinZanni expanded its 2011 programming to include Sweet Sunday Brunches. Also new is Mezzo Lunatico, a monthly late night cabaret. In November 2011, Teatro ZinZanni will also host a series of circus shows for children. Teatro ZinZanni is also home to the ZinZanni Institute for Circus Arts (ZICA) which hosts Camp ZinZanni, a summer education program for kids ages 5 to 16.

The evening show runs approximately three and one-half hours. Brunch performances are 90-minutes. Mezzo Lunatico runs approximately two hours. Camp ZinZanni camps are one week long, held June through August.

Where: Teatro ZinZanni is located at 222 Mercer Street, in Seattle Center's Theatre District at 3rd Avenue North and Mercer Street.
